5th June 1958

Dear Mr Dulles,

I feel that I must write to thank you for sparing time to see me with the Head of the BBC Monitoring Service, John Campbell, during our recent visit to Washington. It was encouraging for me to have this opportunity of paying tribute to the harmonious relations which exist between our respective monitoring services, and to thank you for the significant help which we have received at your hands.

The understanding between us in the field of world monitoring was, I think, further consolidated in the cordial discussions which took place in Washington under George Carey's aegis, and we look forward to the continuance of this relationship which we for our part find so rewarding.

On my return to London I duly passed on your message to Sir Ian Jacob. I am sorry that this letter has been long delayed but, after leaving Washington I had a very full programme in both the United States and Canada.

Yours sincerely,
J. B. Clark
(J.B. Clark)

Director, C.I.A.,

Mr. John T. Campbell, Head
NSC Monitoring Service
Caversham Park
Reading Berks, England

Dear John:

I am not sure at the moment whether the cancellation of your Cyprus visit was due to our intercession or your own independent decision. In either case, the developments of the preceding few days with curfews and restrictions on road movements in Cyprus might have made it difficult for you and Jack Allen to have gotten together. I certainly hope, when the situation quiets, that you and Rubinstein can get to Cyprus and that the Coverage Coordination Meeting can be held there.

We have followed your progress to the other bureaus with interest, and especially appreciate your assistance in Singapore where Houshush reports he has succeeded in recruiting a monitor for Saigon.

Sincerely,

STAT

Chief, PRIS
